

Pretty Paper Plates

What fun is cooking and baking if you can't share your treats with your friends and neighbors? However, sharing your fresh baked goodies can get costly if you are always leaving your stylish platters and good storage containers behind. Here's a cute idea that will allow you to take treats to the neighbor's house and not have to worry about retrieving the container later. It's stylish and affordable, and solves a costly dilemma... what a value!

Shop at Dollar Tree – Here's What You'll Need:

- Paper Plates
- Ribbon
- Hole Punch

Easy Step-by-Step Directions:

1. Punch an even number of holes around the perimeter of 2 paper plates.
2. String the ribbon through each hole.
3. Tie the loose end of the ribbon into a bow.
4. Put your goodies on the plate and deliver to you favorite friends!

Fun Tips:

- Match your plate and ribbon color to the season. Pastels for spring, bright colors for summer, or even red and green for Christmas!
- Are you taking your goodies to a potluck or hosting a party at your house? Use these pretty paper plates as your serving platters to give boring veggie and cracker plates a fun twist.
