

Moss-Covered Letter

A little moss, some cardboard, and glue... not exactly the ingredients you would expect for an elegant piece of wall art, right? Plus, who would imagine that something so elegant could be so easy and inexpensive? This easy décor idea will add a natural touch to a living room mirror. Or, use it as a centerpiece in your wedding décor or make a woodsy statement for your new nursery. Bring that natural, outdoor touch to your décor for just dollars.

Shop at Dollar Tree – Here's What You'll Need:

- 1 Bag of Decorative Floral Moss
- Cardboard
- Glue

Easy Step-by-Step Directions:

1. Cut a letter out of the cardboard.
2. Using generous amounts of glue, affix pinches of moss to the cardboard, being sure to cover the entire piece.
3. Allow to dry for several hours.
4. Shake off excess moss and patch up any exposed/uncovered cardboard.
5. Use ribbon, tape, or nails to hang on a wall, door, mirror, or inside a frame.
