Yearly Memory Calendar

Here's a daily calendar you won't ever toss! With each day that passes, you get to revisit a fond memory from the years before, plus you'll continue to add new memories... so your calendar will just keep getting better year after year. Plus, you can accent it with personal memorabilia and pictures to make it even more special.

Shop at Dollar Tree – Here's What You'll Need:

- 366 Index Cards
- Cute Container, Slightly Larger than the Cards
- Photos, Postcards or Other Memorabilia, Slightly Taller than the Index Cards

Easy Step-by-Step Directions:

1. Write the dates of the year boldly at the top of each card. Include any important birthday or anniversary reminders.
2. Put in a nice container on your desk. Use pictures, postcards or other memorabilia to separate the months.
3. At the end of each day, before moving the card to the back of the container, write a brief sentence about something that happened that day.
