Personal Pilgrim Napkin Rings

Get the kids' fingers out of the mashed potatoes and put them to work! They'll actually have fun making these adorable napkin rings that double as place cards. If only it were this fun and easy to get them to set the table...

Shop at Dollar Tree – Here's What You'll Need:

- Inkjet Photo Paper
- Construction Paper
- Tape
- Glue
- Glitter Glue
- Scissors

Easy Step-by-Step Directions:

1. Print out photos of your guests (this can be done a few days ahead of time).
2. Cut black construction paper widthwise into 2" to 3" strips.
3. Cut the heads out of the photos.
4. Cut collars, hat bands, and bonnets out of white paper, and hats out of black paper.
5. Glue all of the pieces together. Use Glitter Glue to draw buttons and hat buckles.
6. Once the glue is dry, tape the pilgrims around rolled napkins and set the table!
