Creative Gift: Hand-Painted Serveware

With so many holiday gatherings, it's hard to figure out a nice gift for all of the hosts without breaking the bank. Why not make a personal and inexpensive hostess gift out of some of the great serveware you'll find at Dollar Tree? Simply paint the handles of serving spoons with nail polish (keep it on the handle and stop the paint at least one inch above where it will touch food) to complement a dishtowel. Tie with a ribbon on top of a salad, casserole, or dessert.
