Epsom Salt “Snow-Filled” Glasses

Bring a little of that winter wonderland feeling to all of your holiday décor... vases, candleholders, centerpieces, mantel, outdoor walkway, and more! With this easy and inexpensive “snow-filled” glasses idea you’ll get all of the winter thrills without any of the chills... and all with just a few easy steps!

Shop Dollar Tree, Here’s What You’ll Need:

- Epsom Salt
- Candles (tealights or votive candles)
- Glass Jars, Candleholders, or Vases

Easy Step-by-Step Directions:

1. Pour the Epsom salt into the jar, filling it about $\frac{1}{3}$ full.
2. Place the candle on top of the Epsom salt and gently twist to secure.
3. Enjoy... seriously, it’s just that simple!

Fun Tips:

- Line your walkway with “snowy” jars to greet your guests at your next holiday party, then also place several jars around the party space for added ambiance.
- Fill various sized vases and candleholders, then group together as a table centerpiece. Accent with a little green garland and a few round ball ornaments or faux poinsettias for a finished look.
- Fill several vases of the same size, then line them up on your mantel for a dramatic effect.
