Cobalt Blue Champagne Flutes

Web Staff Product Pick for the Holidays

If you haven't seen them yet, you need to check out our Famous-Maker Cobalt Blue 8-oz. Glass Champagne Flutes. We just love them and they're a staff favorite for the holidays. Not only does the beautiful blue hue compliment table settings for Christmas and New Year's, but their versatility also makes them perfect in a variety of applications. Best of all, they're only $1 each.

No matter what your style, these glasses are sure to be a big hit. Here are a few holiday ideas from our web staff:

Do you love to serve up sweet treats for the holidays? Why not buy a set of these glasses to make a holiday-chic champagne dessert? Just mix clear gelatin, a little champagne or ginger ale, and a strawberry, pour them in the glasses and chill. Yummy and classy!

Do you and your friends love hosting parties and small get-togethers? You could pair a set of four glasses with a nice bottle of champagne or sparkling grape juice for a quick and easy gift idea.

Do you love to get crafty for the holidays? Grab a few glasses and create the perfect party favor for your New Year's bash by embellishing these glasses with a little glass paint and some sparkly accents. Guests can use them to toast the New Year, then take them home to remember the occasion!

But don't take our word for it... check out what our customers are saying about this top-rated item!
