Global Corporate Trust Services – Europe Hosts 1st Year Anniversary Client Event

U.S. Bank Global Corporate Trust Services (GCTS) celebrated their 1st anniversary in Europe by hosting an evening reception at The Grange Hotel on 25th September. Attended by over 100 clients and advisors from across the capital markets, the evening was deemed “a great success” by staff and attendees alike. Terrance R. Dolan, Vice Chairman, Wealth Management & Securities Services and Bryan Calder, President of Global Corporate Trust Services attended and addressed the audience as did Tom Cubitt, Head of Corporate Trust - Europe.

Dolan (Vice Chairman, Wealth Management & Security Services), Bryan Calder (President, Global Corporate Trust Services), Rory Bremner (Comedian), Terry McRoberts (Executive VP, Corporate & Municipal Trust Services), and Tom Cubitt (Head of Global Corporate Trust - Europe)

In his speech Terry congratulated the European team in successfully building the bank's presence and brand over the last year, noting “we have made significant progress in 2012 by expanding our products and services and building a great team in Europe through key hires and promotions of several talented employees. This significant progress has resulted in some important wins for the business and will enable us to continue building the momentum we are experiencing.” Dolan continued by pointing out that Global Corporate Trust Services is a “gem in the crown” of U.S. Bank. Tom Cubitt thanked everyone involved for their support and hard work, “we would like to pay particular thanks to our clients and strategic partners for providing opportunities over the last 12 months and look forward to strengthening these relationships in the year ahead.”

Special guest Rory Bremner delighted guests with comedy and impressions while Gareth Kalyan amazed the audience with close-up magic and illusions.
